

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (November 30, 2011)

Santa, Lokahi 'elves,' song and the holiday spirit visit Lahaina Cannery Mall

Month of special entertainment and activities culminate in Las Vegas giveaway

Lahaina, Maui, Hawaii – The holiday season kicks into high gear Saturday, December 3 at Lahaina Cannery Mall with the arrival of Santa and the annual statewide Lokahi Giving Project donation drive. Along with emcee Andrew Periera from KHON2, volunteers will collect donations, gift cards and unwrapped gifts from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., with live music and entertainment throughout the day. All donations will aid Maui's less fortunate during the holiday season. (More info at LokahiGivingProject.org)

Live holiday entertainment continues every Saturday and Sunday in December with free performances from Hawaii musicians, halau, church and school groups.

Lahaina Cannery Mall will get into the holiday spirit again this year by giving away two tickets to Las Vegas as part of the center's annual "Very Vegas Christmas" holiday giveaway. Winner will be drawn on Saturday, December 17 at center stage. Visit any Lahaina Cannery Mall merchant for details.

While you're shopping, check out the holiday trees decorated with hand-made ornaments by Maui schools and community groups as part of the annual "Festival of Trees" decoration contest.
